

Compliment, a Bold Jumper, Wins 'Chase

Runs Over His Field in Last Half-Mile of the Corinthian 'Chase.'

SMALL FIELDS RULE AT BELMONT PARK

Sharpshooter Repeats and Defeats Fair Field of Two-Year-Old Like a Good Colt.

By HERBERT.

J. B. Widener's Compliment, one of the best jumpers of the year, won at Belmont Park yesterday, but could not measure strides with F. Ambrose Clark, Lysander and Savannah, both of which are rated above him by the official handicapper.

He fended so boldly and well, however, and won so easily when Tuckey had him at the best of the season, that he is pronounced the best companion Bellini.

Lysander wrenches his ankle on the eve of the race and Savannah did not run out well after pulling up a bit more in his work, so that both were unseated. Compliment had what looked like strong opposition, however, in a C. E. Fleischmann's George Eno and Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., and Devereux Milburn, the famous international back.

Another match probably will be played on Saturday.

SEPTEMBER 10.—WEATHER CLEAR; TRACK FAST.

FIRST RACE—Selling; for fillies and geldings; $500 added. One mile. Start good. Won driving. Time, 1:09. Winner, ch. g., by Star Shoot—Queen Regent. Owner, R. Hyams. Trainer, C. F. Clark.

Starters	P	Wt.	St.	%	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Betting	Open.	High.	Clos.	Pl.	3d.

His Nibs	6	102	6	6%	6	5½	Stewart	12	15	5	2	3
Capt. Swanson	5	110	2	2%	5½	6	Sunter	12	15	8	3	7
							Butwell	15	20	6

Winner entered for $500; no bid. Royal Meteor, pinched off on the backstretch, ran up fast around the turn and stood a long drive gained after handing Progressive two or three lengths. Miss Sheldon, on the inside, claimed the win was not valid. Neither of the two place clearly, but hung in the final drive and lost a little ground going wide. His Nibs stopped badly.

Joe McChey seemed to have good muscle for lodging a claim in the race, but the stewards dismissed it without even sending for the owner.

It looked from the stand as if Buxton crowded Progressive at the turn in home and Royal Meteor certainly hopped a fence while racing head to head, which made the latter lose enough ground to cost him the race by hearing out.

The stewards felt that both boys are to blame for the bunting and consequently dismissed the complainant.

The race was a pretty one, as the two horses fought it out neck and neck for a quarter of a mile with Northerner steer enough at all times to be dangerous.

It begins to look as if Schuyler L. Parsons had got above the ordinary in Sharpshooter, a big, fine looking son of Single Shot. He was graduated from the maiden class on Monday and he repeated yesterday, winning in impressive fashion from some fair two-year-olds.

He has a smooth way of going and enough substance to indicate that, barring accidents, he will develop into a most useful three-year-old.

Mr. Parsons missed a possible "double" when Rhine Maiden knocked Hanson down and carried him to the rail from the middle of the track half way down the straight.

To make matters worse the Watergate silly cut him off sharply, so that Foster had to pull up and go to the outside. In the meantime, Glooming went clear sailing and won off by herself.

Rhine Maiden was justly disqualified by the stewards, but this did not make much to Mr. Parsons or Hanson. It is however, give third money to Mary and Girt, which did not deserve it on running.

Jed. Pitcher Not Badly Hurt. less serious than was first thought the injury sustained by Ernest Herbert, pitcher of the St. Louis Federal League club, who was hit on the head by a batted ball during practice on Wednesday. Herbert probably will be back in the game within a few days, according to an announcement made last night by physicians at the hospital where he was taken.

Compliment, a Bold Jumper, Wins 'Chase'

He fended so boldly and well, however, and won so easily when Tuckey had him at the best of the season, that he is pronounced the best companion Bellini.

Another match probably will be played on Saturday.

Reliance	4	114	7	7	7	7	Burlingame	4	8	8	3	7

Winner entered for $500; no bid. Sharpshooter, on right back to his last race and won a good horse, Burrell, had more early foot than usual. Doubtless, on badly, closed a big gap. Watertown ran as if a race short.

THIRD RACE—Handicap; for fillies and geldings; $500 added. Six furlongs, main course. Start good. Won handily. Time, 1:12. Winner, ch. g., by Disguise—Single Shot. Owner, S. L. Parsons. Trainer, W. H. Karrick.

Starters	P	Wt.	St.	%	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Betting	Open.	High.	Clos.	Pl.	3d.
Hester Prynne	1	115	2	2%	2½	2½	McCaffrey	2-5	2	1	3
Azylade	2	108	1	1%	1½	1½	Butwell	7-5	5	5	2

Hester Prynne, after lying off the pace, had to be hard ridden to get up, but right at the end won rather handily. Azylade had plenty of feet and ran one of her best races.

FOURTH RACE—Selling; for three-year-olds and up; $500 added. Six furlongs, main course. Start good. Won ridden out. Time, 1:13. Winner, ch. c., by Montpelier Stable. Trainer, T. J. Healey.

Starters	P	Wt.	St.	%	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Betting	Open.	High.	Clos.	Pl.	3d.
Carl	8	106	2	2%	2½	2½	McCaffrey	4	5	4	5

Yellow Eyes	2	108	3	3%	3	3	McCaffrey	4-5	11	10	11	3

Winner entered for $500; no bid. Carl opened up a winning gap in the first quarter and was never in danger, although Ford rode him out in the closing strides. Undaunted and won strongly halfway down the stretch and probably showed her best. Yellow Eyes was never a serious contender.

FIFTH RACE—CORINTHIAN STEEPELCHASE HANDICAPS; for three-year-olds and up; $1,000 added. About two miles. Start good. Won handily. Time, 4:09. Winner, ch. d., by Ott Wells—Adelot. Owner, J. E. Widener. Trainer, Tr. J. Lewis.

Starters	P	Wt.	St.	%	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Betting	Open.	High.	Clos.	Pl.	3d.
Compliment	3	153	1	2%	3½	3½	Tuckey	7-5	5	11	10	3

Adventures	1	140	2	2%	2½	2½	McCaffrey	20	20	20	7	3

Winner entered for $500; no bid. Compliment, a bold jumper, came away easily at the end after being cleverly rated for a mile and a half. Keholt finally raced George into submission, but tired too quickly to hold on at the finish. Footloose, too, fared well and had speed, but tired from setting the pace.

SIXTH RACE—Selling; for maiden two-year-olds; $500 added. Five and a half furlongs, straight course. Start good. Won easily. Time, 1:06. Winner, ch. c., by Star Shoot—Queen Regent. Owner, S. L. Parsons. Trainer, W. H. Karrick.

Cloutier	4	108	9	8%	8½	8½	McCaffrey	20	20	20	7	3

Winner entered for $500; no bid. Gloaming, with clear sailing, easily won. The latter was carried to the rail and hardly cut off by Rhine Maiden halfway down the straight. Others were never prominent.

SEVENTH RACE—Selling; for maidens; $500 added. Six furlongs, straight course. Start good. Won easily. Time, 1:06. Winner, ch. c., by Star Shoot—Queen Regent. Owner, S. L. Parsons. Trainer, W. H. Karrick.

Starters	P	Wt.	St.	%	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys	Betting	Open.	High.	Clos.	Pl.	3d.

Cloutier	4	108	5	4½	3½	3½	McCaffrey	10	10	5	5	5

Winner entered for $500; no bid. Cloutier, a bold jumper, came away easily at the end after being cleverly rated for a mile and a half. Keholt finally raced George into submission, but tired too quickly to hold on at the finish. Footloose, too, fared well and had speed, but tired from setting the pace.

EIGHTH RACE—Selling; for maidens; $500 added. Six furlongs, straight course. Start good. Won easily. Time, 1:06. Winner, ch. c., by Star Shoot—Queen Regent. Owner, S. L. Parsons. Trainer, W. H. Karrick.
